Dedication

Mrs. Francine Bullock

"If your actions inspire others to dream more, learn more, do more, and become more, you are a leader."--John Quincy Adams

The Senior Class would like to dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Francine Bullock. As Principal, Mrs. Bullock was always there for her students, urging them to do their very best. Her office was always open for us to go in to talk to her about anything! She attended so many of our Lion's events including football and baseball games, as well as many plays and concerts. Her presence was always greatly appreciated. She worked very closely with the senior class throughout our four years of high school to watch us succeed to the best of our abilities. Mrs. Bullock's positive attitude and effective leadership for many years made West Boylston Middle/High School a closer place, a second home for all her students to learn, grow, and develop into mature adulthood. The school will not be the same without her.

The Class of 2010 wishes to recognize Mrs. Francine Bullock for her 22 years of dedication and excellence to WBM/HS! Thank you for your 19 years of service to our community as our Principal.

A note from Ms. DeRosa
(Yearbook Advisor)

Thank you to all our 2010 Lion's Pride Yearbook Staff, whose dedication and hard work made this yearbook possible.

The Yearbook would not be possible this year without the advertising efforts of Michelle and Victoria Cormier. Thank you ladies for all the effort to get as many advertisers in the book as possible.

A special thank you to Lynsay Whitney, Editor in Chief, who had a special way of making every page she touched in the book look bold and beautiful. Your keen sense of design made this yearbook complete.

Thank you to Jessica Dias for always volunteering to help in every deadline to get things done. You are incredible.

Courtney Lowe - I don't know how you do it, but you are involved everywhere, and can be counted on to complete all deadlines. Thank you for the countless hours you spent working on virtually every section in this book. The book couldn't have been completed without you.

Seniors 2010

"It is not length of life, but depth of life."
~Ralph Waldo Emerson

High school. However formidable it may be, in many respects it represents some of the best memories ever made. For me, high school will always embody the first truly tough hurdles that needed to be jumped. It will remind me of the eternal war of painting the lion, the Freshman Club, Friday night football games, soccer under the lights, homecoming spirit, the sweat and tears studying for AP exams, Spring Show, and of course, the greatest friends a person could have.

So with that said, I would like to thank my parents first and foremost. Mum, you've been my editor in-chief of my essays, personal chauffer, free-hug benefactor, and my biggest fan. Big thanks to Reegan and Chris; life is never dull with you guys. Next are the teachers who have cheered me on throughout the years. Thank yous go to my fellow survivors; Fletcher, my inner cowgirl, Lori, my caring, wild, hyper, natural disaster magnet, Sonja, my track buddy, Kara, my optimism coach, Leah, my Saturday morning Crew cheering partner and Saturday night talking and chocolate buddy, and the rest of the WB gang. Peter, there are too many words to say, none sufficient enough to do you justice.

Congratulations seniors! The chapter of high school has finally ended

Our twelve years are over. I have great friends who have been friends since the start. I don't have to say bye to any of them because they will always be my friends, even if they are far away and I never see any of them.

In the last two years I have grown the most. There were some great teachers and tutors who have helped me.

Dad always kept me motivated, Mom kept me on track, my friends and family kept me caring.

Good luck everybody. Thanks, I hope to see you around.

High School has definitely been an interesting experience, I am so lucky to have been surrounded by such amazing people. To my family, words can't explain how grateful I am to and for you - Mom, Dad, I love you, thank you so much for everything. I am so blessed to have such wonderful parents who care and sacrifice so much for their family. Grammy, Papa, I love you so much. All of the happiest memories I have-you made them or were in them. Gram-I hope that someday I can be as important and cherished by someone as you are by me. Friends-I am sososo glad I came to WB, I can't imagine who I'd be if I'd never met you guys. Soccer, b-ball, drama, chem... good times :] Fletch, thanks for putting up with me... VHS... no sleep... late texts... haha everything. Sonja-roller coasters, bubble-wrap waves, Kara Kent, a never-ending checklist still to be completed... backpacking? Thanks for everything, where would I be without you? :] Lori, Meliss, juggle buddies :D Caitlin-you never fail to make me smile/laugh... electrons :] I love you haha. Emily,Maggs,Ari,K.P, and everyone from Doherty and way back! Thanks to all my teachers and everyone who has helped/carried me along the way.

I want to start off by thanking my family. Mom, Dad, and Jen, thanks so much for putting up with my crap. I really appreciate everything, and love you guys. If it wasn't for you, I wouldn't be able to graduate. Ben, Derek, Anthony, Nick- You guys are my best buds, and we've had awesome times together. Michael- You're my brother, and will be for life. I will always treasure our man dates, and everything we've been through. The Pusateri family- Thanks for having me over every night with delicious meals. Zack-I love beating you in cribbage, and pool. Jimbo-my fellow uncle. I love your jokes about me, and your "funny" pics of me. Socia appreciates it. Ray-All I can say is let's go 5:15 tonight? Rob- My great betting buddy and my terrible bowling partner. Grady-Always the 3 musketeers. Marissa-The blue marker will never be forgotten. Rebecca- Our great cape trip with the blinky light, and my second sister. Shea and Corey- 3 old ladies live forever. Jared- oh my victor! We've been good friends for along time bud. Everyone else, I didn't forget you, I just ran outta words, but we finally did it!

Wow, I can't even believe how fast my high school years have gone by. They have been so much fun and I've had some unforgettable times. First off I would like to thank my parents. You have supported me in practically everything, so thanks . Dad, maybe I'll understand the advice and stories you've told me someday. Rachel and Sarah you two are great sisters and its been really fun. Also, big shout out to all my friends, we've had a TON of good times over the years. Ski trips, sleepovers at John's playing super smash brothers, going fishing but only catching five pound bull frogs, tinja nurtles, 1,000,000,000,003 yeee! going to the courts at eleven EVERY DAY for like four summers, swimming at my house, it's been real. I wish everyone the best of luck in whatever it is they choose to do with their life. Keep on keepin' on class of 2010.

I remember being a freshman thinking that high school would never end. I had taken time for granted and now senior year is here. It has been a great time in my life. I will never forget Ms. Montouri's English class, and all of the good times we had there. I want to thank Mr. Gibbs for helping me out through some tough times. Many thanks to Mr. Palmi for being the DECA advisor, too bad we never had that "DECA ripper." Also thanks to Ms. DeRosa for always understanding and laughing at my terrible jokes! Thank you to my friends, my main man Mike, Derek, Jimmy [AKA God] J-Bird, Nick[RICK] Tim Rotti, "Dustin Bradshaw"; I appreciate all of the help and good times with ya'll. Finally thanks to my family for all of the love and support through the years! I have learned a lot about life in the last four years and will never forget anything! 2010 RULEZ DOOD!

Funny to think why I am who I am, for if indeed I am the product of my experiences, then who am I to thank my being where I am? I am where I am and I have what I have because of the people I have interacted with. Thank you mom and dad, for letting me learn from my successes and mistakes, and most of all for allowing me to form my own opinions [and for being the direct cause of my material existence]. Thank you, Sarah, for slicing me with your sharpened wit and not your unsharpened saber [so far, anyway. Blunt trauma might be less painful]. Thank you Olivia, simply for being who you are. Jess C. - I do hereby condescend to grant [or bestow] my thanks upon you. I think you'll remember some vocab words - especially one which starts with the sixth letter of the alphabet... And finally thanks to everyone who helped me move into this senior class, and remembered me after I left it, both from 2012 - Phillip, Emily, Claire, and others - and 2010 - Caitlin A., Jess [multiple], and many, many others. Congratulations, class of 11111011010 - or 3732 - or 7DA...

Wasn't I just a freshman yesterday? Time has gone by so quickly that it's almost scary. I've had a great time here at West Boylston and made a lot of friends. A lot of memories come from these halls. I have to admit, some aren't all that great. Some, though, are fantastic. Good or bad, I wouldn't be the person I am today without that experience and I'll always remember this school and everyone in it fondly for shaping me.

To everyone in the class of 2010: we did it! I wish you all the best of luck, even though it's not like you're going to need it. To all of my friends: I know some of you are afraid of change. I am too. Relax, okay? You are a fantastic bunch of people and I love you all. You are wonderful, brilliant, and you will figure out where you're going and what you're doing with time. I'll miss you all but I'm comforted by the fact that you're all going out to do bigger and better things.

Graduation grants us new lives to live, presents us with a new chapter to write. I know we'll all turn out great.

I know it's cliche, but I just can't believe it's senior year! After waiting this long, it's a hard thing to comprehend. We've all had our ups and downs these last four years. Friends coming and going. Senior year rolled around so quickly. I know I will miss everyone once we go our separate ways. Mom and Dad, thank you so much for putting up with me and driving me to and from school when I needed it. To all my teachers, I appreciate all the hard work you've gone through to help me these past four years. My friends, I appreciate you sticking by me, even when times got tough. Last, but not least, I'd like to say a few words to my fellow senior classmates. We've made it! Good luck for the future, in everything you do. I know some day in the future we will meet again. We have changed each others lives for good, hopefully for the better. Try hard, give it your all, and you will succeed in everything you set out to do.

First of all I'd like to thank my family for helping me get through these years. Mom and Dad, thank you for helping me whenever I asked. I couldn't have done this without you. Nick and Jenna, You both are amazing siblings, even though you both probably distracted more than you helped me when it came to school work. Nick M- I can't even begin to name all of the good times we've had, it all started in 8th grade. Why did my mom have to throw out that yellow binder? Mike B- You are truly a great friend. Great times broadcasting the basketball games, And New Years sleepovers. Anthony I- You and I have been friends ever since I thought you lived on the highway, way too many good times to list. Derek N- You are the most reliable friend I've ever had. Thank you for all the times you gave me a ride somewhere. It's hard to believe we ended up being friends considering the way you shunned me at Alton Jones when I asked you about your Playstation Magazine. To all friends and family I couldn't fit, thank you for everything you've done for me.

We're done! We've finished... no more six straight hours of school with only twenty minutes for lunch. I'm so looking forward to college and all of the new experiences, but I know I will miss many of you. Whitney There is going to be no more half days to have trips to the movie theater and eat French fries with some mozzie sticks. I'm going to miss that so much. Our constant bickering over drawing could never cause us to stop be friends or stop drawing for that matter Luv you! To all the Lady Lions I'm going to miss you all sooooo much. I have had so much fun this year from trips with Lori [and the missing keys incident] to kicking many teams' butts while enjoying ourselves. I'm definitely going to miss when I no longer have Kara A. and Lori, with Caitlin A. sometimes as well, to juggle and just enjoy ourselves when off the field. I'd like to thank my parents for getting me to work my buns off and get all of my work done. Without you guys, I wouldn't have been able to do anything. I love you all! <3

When you stop and think about it, it seems like not long ago we were freshmen. I think everyone has a love/hate relationship with our high school. Everyone loves that you know everyone but hates that everyone knows everything about you, even stuff that isn't true. I want to thank all my friends for making school a fun time. A special thanks goes out to my best math buddy, Emily. Just remember you will always be the Pink to my Blue! I also want to give a special thanks to Nicole who has always been there to vent to. And a very special thanks to my best friend, in and out of school, who I do everything with, even though we are kind of losers, Alli. For everyone else who I don't have enough words to talk about, thank you too, Fletcher, Maggie, Lori, Kristen, Ari, Jess and Kim. Going to Quinsig for my senior year was definitely a good choice for me, but at the same time it is very sad. I miss everyone and want to wish you all good luck with the rest of your lives.

Wow! The last four years have flown by. We're seniors; I can't believe it. I never thought that the end of high school would come fast enough, but now it has come too soon. Mom & Dad: Thank you for helping me over the years and always supporting me. I love you guys. Alex: You're the best little brother any one could ask for. Hope you enjoy the rest of your high school years. Liz, Anna, Kelly, Ashley, Mike & Gio: I love you all. I honestly couldn't have a better family. I would've never made it through the last four years, with out my two best friends Angela & Liz. We are more than best friends, were sisters. There are so many memories that will never be forgotten. I love you both so much. Thank you for always being there when I need you girls. Sisters forever<3; To all my other friends you know who you are and I love you all, I will never forget all the good times we've had.. Class of 2010 I wish you all the best of luck & hope you all achieve your dreams. Congratulations everyone we've made it & I'll miss you all.

Senior year is here-and-gone in a flash! First I would like to thank my family. Mom you're my rock! No matter what I did you were always there to pick me up to keep me going. I still remember when I was in elementary-school and I came home to Inspector Gadget2 on my bed those little things you did for me I will always remember! Dad, so many good-times on the motorcycle, you always gave me a story to tell after the weekend! You have done so much for me and I will never forget it. I will always be daddy's little girl! Vinny even though I was a pain in the butt to you, I always remember looking up to you! You're the best brother in my heart and always will be! And then there is Courtney, so many good times throughout high-school we made a good-team in anything we did! ~All the road trips, concerts and deep conversations you were always there for me ~You're the BEST. AlliandMarya you girls made my life interesting and fun, I will never forget you2! To the soccer girls! ~ Always keep your heads-up and try your-best no matter what! Love you girls! I can't believe high school is already over! These past four years have been hell but it's gotten us through a big part of our lives. I want to thank my parents and everyone in my family who helped me get through high school, I love you all. I especially want to thank my mom for always being there for me. No matter what I had going on you were always there to talk to and support me in everything I did, even at 2 in the morning. To the girls, britt, becky, court; thanks for always being there for me and thank you for some of the best and funniest times of my life. And to david, joe, dan, jason; thanks guys for all the memories and the unforgettable times we've had. Thanks for always keeping me laughing :] Caroline, couldn't of done it without you. We've been through everything together in high school and still managed to stay best friends. Sorry I couldn't leave you my prints. Congratulations to the class of 2010 and good luck everybody!

I can't believe it's over! The past four years have flown by! I couldn't have done it without my mom and dad. If you hadn't pushed me I wouldn't be writing this right now. Thank you for everything you have done. I love you. I want to wish my sisters, Julianne and Rhiann, the best of luck in everything they do. I hope that I have been a good older sister and a positive role model. Alek- thank you for always putting up with me and being there for me no matter what. You're my best friend and I love you so much forever&always. Joey, Princess Stephanie, Lauren, and Michael- I love you guys and we had amazing times... Thanks for being there. CRP- Thank you for being with me through EVERYTHING. You're my best friend forever. RAH-So many good times, through all the fights you're still here for me "come to the bush!!" To everyone else.. [S.O, J.P, D.R, M.B, N.E, M.S] love you guy's thanks for some amazing memories that I'll never forget. Good luck class of 2010!

I can't believe it's already over. High school went by so much faster than I thought it would. I didn't really think it'd be so fast but college is already almost here. I couldn't have made it here without my friends and family. I'd like to thank my mom, dad, and sister for being here for me no matter what. Also to my main man, all those funny times hanging out till 12 on school nights. Probably wasn't the best decision we made but, oh well, ha. Also Andy and Chris being best buds since I don't remember but so many fun times and more to be. If it weren't for them dirt biking and so many memories wouldn't have been to be. High school had its ups and downs. The worst memory was the "dirt bike crash" as everyone knows with Ryan Hay and Nick Brown. I won't forget about it, being right there, but I learned my lesson from seeing that. Even though from the mistakes I have made in the past I wouldn't go back and change who I am because that's what made me. High school was fun and now it's time for the real world to bring us all on. A last thanks to everyone who got me through high school.

Firstly, Cory T. and Kevin S., I don't know what would become of me if I didn't have you. Dragonforce was INSANE and one of the best days of my life! Cory, thinking back to that first day around THAT table seems like forever! Awesome times playing MTG with Tyler and playing guitar at your dad's work with 'Pink Hair"... Kevin, you always know how to boost my self-esteem, what with my 'silver-pimple' and 'couch-hair'! Bones don't stretch and soccer balls hurt when they hit the nose; we've established all of this. You've been my brother, my gossip pal, but most of all, my best friend who has stuck with me through my good days and all of my worst. I LOVE YOU both deeply! Michelle, Jake, Dee, Danielle, Sarah, Jill, and Derek: you have always been there for me and I have grown to see you all as lovable siblings. The Nolan, Sanders, Sorge, and Taylor families: Thanks for always treating me as one of your own children. And to my very own family: We have been closer than any other family I've ever met! I'm glad to have grown up with such a crazy bunch as you. <3

Wow I think its safe to say that none of us ever thought that we would see the day where we would have to depart away from our little closeknit school. Each year has brought new challenges but also friendships and memories along the way. I have met people who I will never forget and people who have changed my life. I have made memories that will last a lifetime and friendships that will last forever. I could have never gotten through high school without my parents. So I would like to thank them for dragging me out of bed every morning, driving me everywhere, and putting up with all my crazy things I wanted to accomplish. I would also like to thank all of my friends. Without them I would never be who I am today. We have shared many memories from the beginning to the end of our stay here at West Boylston. There are memories ranging from Friday night football games to crazy cram sessions and some that should never be told again. The thought of leaving it all behind is scary but I could never be happier with my stay here at West Boylston. Now I will leave you with one last parting thought. Do vegetarians eat animal crackers? Congratulations class of 2010, we did it!

*It's a generic phrase, "Senior year! It's all gone by so fast." But it really has. It's been a bumpy ride, but we're finally here. Obviously my friends have made it awesome.. You know who you are! More specifically, Kayla.. Though we haven't spent that much time together recently, I love you like a sister!!! Good times; Apple picking, "Froodaloom!!!" The lake and Boston Baked Beans.. Hampton Beach, "You look like a lobster!!" Also Bethany, you are my best friend and I love you!!! Last summer was amazing, "Put me down!!" Throwing shoes at Mr. Carter by accident.. "Oooh Ahhh Lalala clapclapclap." and some more things I can't put on here.. Neighborhood people!! Summer nights will live on!! And obviously I can't forget the family: Mom, Dad, Rory, Didi and Paul.. To all of you: Thank you for everything in the past 18 years :] I also want to mention Phil, you were an inspiration and we all miss you a lot. So my last words here are as generic as the first but.. Congrats class of 2010!! We're finally at the end of this road.. But starting down another. Good Night and Good Luck. :]*

To my parents, my step-mother, and my family for supporting me throughout the years, I just want to take some time and say thank you for everything you have done. I appreciate you for guiding me throughout my life and leading me in the right direction.

I couldn't have gotten through high school without my main man Mike Bartkus, thanks for being by my side.

In my sophomore year Jennifer Altomare became my girlfriend, which made my life happier. She has been there when I needed someone the most. Thank you for always being with me.

I never thought high school would fly by so fast! And I couldn't have done it without a few very special people. First, I would like to send a shout out to everyone in anime club. Practice makes perfect, find your own style, and always have fun with it. Next, to art class; I had a crazy time with you people. I loved spending 90 minutes of my day with you all and, consequently, I will never forget about "the snow of Christmas morn." Thanks to Lori, Victoria, and countless others for always being able to put a smile on my face when I needed it the most. Thanks to Jess C. for being my go-to girl and my sister, Christiane for loving me [I love you more!], and Katie for all the camp gossip and movie day. And a HUGE thank you to Melissa for being with me since elementary school and for sticking with me even though I was hard on you. You're irreplaceable, never forget that. Finally, thank you to my entire family [Mom, I wish you could be here for this. I love and miss you very much] for being nothing less. Congratulations, seniors! :D

There are so many people that I wish I could mention here, but there is by far not enough room! So many people have changed my life just by being in it. Emily, you have been my best friend since 4th grade, crying together over Sirius Black's death in the hot tub. I know that we will be friends until we're old! Jess R-R-R-Rio, you've been there for me through a lot, and I can't convey enough how much I appreciate you being there to listen. Kimmy, you're an amazing person and I admire so much about you. I hope that we can continue to visit the dancing Sterling Fair ride man for years to come! Sarah, I could not have asked for a more fantastic neighbor! I love you! We've had some great memories! And Emma, even though you live in Maine, I want you to know that I love you so much! Distance is insignificant because we have such a powerful friendship. You're my rock! Mimi, KP, Fletch, Courtney, Ari, Lori, Kara, Sonja, Marya, Leah, my '09 grads, class of 2010... Love you all and the memories! Good times in Pre-Cal, Chem, and French! I'll miss the laughs!

Derek Nolan[cutie pie], James Marsden[pure awesomeness times ten], and Taylor Blair [Fridays at Getty], thanks to English 11, Ms. Montouri and The Devil and Tom Walker, we were brought together and for that I am glad, you guys pulled me from my geekiness and showed me how to have some real fun. My whole posse; you made high school survivable and let's hope we'll stay in touch, and get into some more shenanigans over the summer. To my whole family I say thank you for your love and support and I know I'll make you proud. And of course, all of my teachers over these years deserve a round of applause, for teaching me and encouraging me to make a difference.

Wow cannot believe I'm graduating. High school has been a blast. I'd like to thank my mom and my dad for supporting me my entire life and helping me through high school as best as they could. I'd also like to thank my friends for being there, having fun and joking around, and making high school the most fun it could be. Not all my friends are in the high school but that doesn't mean I will ever forget about them. I always loved playing soccer for Tahanto and giving my best in practice and games. I always loved snowboarding with the ski club and having fun in the lodge with my friends. Senior year has been beyond amazing and I can't imagine how these four years have left so fast. I still remember first walking in to the high school wing as a freshman, now I'm leaving, learned a lot of life lessons, and bringing with me to college chapters worth of memories. I am excited and ready to move on with my life but I will never forget all the great adventures I have had with my friends all through high school.

I'd like to thank my family and friends for being there for me throughout the years at WBHS. I'd also like to say thank you to the teachers for supporting me and helping me to graduate.

At West Boylston, I learned a lot about school but also about people and life in general. I learned that no matter how tough things get, you have to keep going, because it'll be worth it in the end. Everything that I learned in high school will stay with me throughout the future.

I won't forget WBHS and all the good and rough times that I had there. I grew up there, and none the less, that's where I will graduate from.

I can't believe how quickly the time passed by! We're already done! Everybody says they won't miss it, but they will miss the memories! I don't really need to list every person and memory to show how much fun I've had. First I want to thank my family for being there for me through the years and always having my back, love you all! Second, Angela Marie & Jessica Lee, we'll always be the three musketeers, they've stuek by my side through middle school and high school and I honestly don't know how I would have made it this far without them, we've had so many great memories that I will never forget, Bready green, Tennie & Keebler Elf! Proms and danees, sports, sleepovers, 6flags, the beach, vacations, movies, concerts and bonfires..I could go on forever. Just because high school is over doesn't mean our friendship will be. Wronski, I'll miss your laugh! We've become very close, and have had a lot of great times! DECA with Jess, Greg, Jared, Shea and Julianne & of eourse Mr. Palmi is what I'll miss the most. Shout out to Matt, thanks for breaking my nose. Jared- thanks for all the nieknames. And To everyone else, good luck and goodbye WB!

Here's to the Class of 2010!
Thanks to my entire family for helping me succeed and thanks to all my friends for making it easier and fun.
I'm sad to say good-bye to so many old faees, but excited to meet new ones.
Fletcher... so many great memories... peppers in Australia... frogger... cruisin'... diaper boy... the list is long and I hope it gets longer!
Kara... so glad you transferred sister!...trust me to drive you to see Walter again? My home is your home.
Lori... here's to riding the stairs in a laundry basket and so mueh more! What fun!
Any of you up for fogging the mini-van at Meola's?!
Sarah... I missed you the past 2 years. Thanks for visiting Down Under.
And to the rest of the erew... it wouldn't have been the same without you. Thanks.

Wow, I remember being a freshman saying, "I can't wait to graduate and get out of here."Now that it's finally here, it's going by so fast that I wish there was a slow motion button I could push to enjoy the rest of my time being here. Writing this last minute is hard and a pain in my behind, but that's exactly what I've done with anything school related, and somehow I've made it, as we all did! I wouldn't have done it without my mom always 'on my case and in my face,' as Mrs. Somina always said. So thanks mom for everything. Liz, Britt, Becky, thanks for being there for me the most. Limiting this to 200 words is hard, so all I can say is, Liz, rematch of spatball in your kitchen. Beck, I'm running out of hotpockets. Trip to stop and shop ASAP... oh and my brother Chris says hi ;] haha! Britt, thanks for eating my food and watching my TV. I'll be sending you a bill. So between snacks in class, always late in the morning, how chicken bowl for lunch made everyone excited, I'll oddly miss it. Good luck in the future class of 2010!

Congrats class of 2010! It's over, and time has flown by. Already our high school years come to a close. First of all, I'd like to thank my family for always being there for me, love you all. I'd especially like to thank all of my sisters, Katie, Kelly and Megan. You have always helped me and made me the person I am. I would also like to thank all the teachers that helped me get through high school. Now, I don't know what I would've done without my friends during high school. You all know who you are:] Good times with movie nights, crazy reservoir adventures... especially before tryouts, kayaking -life, running into [or off of] various obstacles all the time, the room... Frodo?, super hero half marathons, soccer, track... and of course Art Class!... Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone: A Book on Tape, et beaucoup de temps d'amusement dans la classe franç aise! WOW, it's already time to graduate. It seems just like yesterday when we were walking down the halls in 9th grade. I would like to thank my wild and insanely crazy friends. My family who has been there through all the bad grades and good grades. I would also like to thank my teachers too. I would like to thank my math teacher Mr. Mulkerrin, cause god knows I would still be in 12th grade if it weren't for him helping me with my math in his math class. You know when you enter the high school wing of West Boylston You think, oh god, this is going to be torture on a level unknown. Well the only thing that is that bad is some of the projects. I'm going to miss alot, BUT I WONT MISS THE CROWDED HALL WAY. I will miss my friends, but we will always keep in touch. No matter what we do, no matter how far we go, no matter how famous I will be as an actor, we will always keep in touch. So in the words of the band Queen: " we will we will rock you" because the class of 2010 is the best class yet. So get ready world your gonna see my name in the stars. I will be up there next to Megan Fox, Michael Bay and Angelina Jolie, but my name will be bigger than them. I will never forget where I came from ,West Boylston MASS. Peace out

"So we do not lose heart. Though our outer self is wasting away, our inner self is being renewed day by day. For this light momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal."-2 Corinthians 4:16-18

Bam shablam in a basket, it's senior year. It's been swell! Pretty much, in a nutshell, I love you all. I wish our grade could've been insanely closer. I honestly don't know what to write here other than don't miss it. Don't miss the most important thing in this world, in this life, and that's love. Love is only found in and through God. Period. Through Him everything has come forth. We spend so much time focusing on the shallow, transient things.. so just don't miss it please. My closest: Victoria- my little pixie fairy amazing sister of love! You make me happy best friend., Derek- you've been my most constant, amazing friend through hs and I love the crap out of you! Cayla- spatball. I won hands down. Crazy videos, crazy times, it's always fun with you. James- you're seriously the man. Brother for life. Leah- shia? Good times with babs last year <3 Love. ... All - so many good times! Laughs at lunch and pretty much just silliness. I've gotten so insanely close to you, it makes me very happy. I hope we stay friends forever! J Sisters!! I'm serving!!

That went by fast. You always hear your grandparents tell you how quickly it will come, and you ignore them and move on with life... They're right. It went by too fast. Enjoy it while you can you guys. I absolutely have to thank my friends, who have made these last few years worth it. Derek, Jesse, Jeremiah, Taylor, Lizmacy, Leah, and last but not least, Victoria. I have honestly had more fun with you guys than I have ever had with anyone else, ever. I thought I knew what friendship was before I met you guys but man was I wrong. Also, Mr. Palmer. More than just the 7th grade science teacher, I think I've made a lifelong friend. You have helped me along more than anyone, and taught me a lot about life, and about myself. I think you've helped the most. Thank you. Also, the guys at the rock gym, for giving me the best job ever, and letting me climb for free whenever I want. Of course, I wouldn't be here without my family, Mum, Dad, Tim, Dan. Thanks for all the rides, advice, and wrestling matches. I love all you guys.

It's over! Where have the years gone? I want to say thanks to the family. Mom, Dad, and Mitch I wouldn't have made it without you. I couldn't ask for a better family. The past years have had its up and downs but it's off to the next chapter. Mitch*- You're my brother and best bud. I'm going to miss you when I head off. Keep out of trouble!* Poose*- We have been through a lot together, you're my boy blue!* Jim*- It's been real. You are a great friend and we have had some great memories.* Rob*- The ping-pong battles have been epic. You're always welcome to come over and test your luck.* Jer*- We have been friends since Beth's and I intend on keeping it that way.* Paul*- You have always been a great friend. Thanks for being there for me through all these years.* John*- "Life is like climbing a tree"ha-ha. We've been down for years.* Rachel*- Who's going to go on mid-night runs to honey farms for red bulls with me now? You are a compassionate person and great to talk to, thanks. For everyone else, let the good times roll and best of luck. Congratulations 2010! We made it!*

When I was younger everyone used to tell me to enjoy my high school years because they go by too fast. I never listened then, but now I understand what they meant. As much as I took school for granted when I was younger, it wasn't until now that I realize how much fun I had, and how much I actually did learn in this place. As exciting as it is to be graduating, it's kind of sad that high school has come to an end. I want to say thanks to my family and friends for always having my back and encouraging me no matter what, The Basement Crew for one of the best summers of my life, and Alexis for being the best friend I could ever ask for. Now that we all go off to wherever the road takes us, I just hope life brings the best to all of us. Good luck class of 2010. Try to keep in touch.

These four years have gone by way too fast. Along with being the fastest years of my life, they've also been the most fun by far.

Mom, Dad, Janessa, Nana and Peggy, I'll always love you and you all pushed me to succeed. Anthony, Ben, Nick, Mike, you guys have been my friends for years and we've got our millions of inside jokes. Jimmy, Taylor, Jeremiah, Jesse, Liz, Justin, Christiane, so many days and nights full of craziness and nonsense.

All my friends have made this high school a time I will never forget. I'm really going to miss all this but who knows what the future will bring.

I'm so happy our final year of high school is almost through, but it's hard to escape the consternation that comes along with a new beginning.

It doesn't feel long ago when I was in middle school, idolizing the people who were in the position I'm in now. I suppose all we can hope for is that we have in fact became the consummate student, and we can learn the lessons of adulthood.

I have a lot of people to be thankful for, foremost my family. Thank you Mom, Dad, Grammy and Grampy, my cousin Michael, and all my aunts and uncles. Also thanks to my friends! Reach for the highest, Class of 2010!

I have loved high school. Getting through it was a very transforming process: I feel like I came here as a child and am leaving as an adult. I want to thank every teacher I have met, even if I never had a class with you! You've helped me turn to face a mirror, see what was there, and take action to change what I saw.

I also want to thank everybody else I've met here; the best thing that high school has given me is a range of new friends that, to say the least, have given me an even greater love of people. Thank you for being you!

This is my advice to everyone entering or continuing high school next year: work hard and think hard, but also make time for laughing, talking, and smiling. High school is as much an education in people as it is in knowledge and skills. Take time to get to know people, because friends are the ones who are there to help you, or even just say hello to you in class.

It's always more worth it to try than to give up. Do your best-and make friends! Good luck!

I'm finally a senior! I've been waiting for this year to come for so long. These years at WEBO have been something else let me tell you. I've made friendships that are permanent memories in my heart. Without the friends I have now I don't think I would have been made it to this year. I almost gave up on school this year but thanks to the support I'm back and getting that piece of paper that said I made it! How many seas must a white dove fly,

Wow man what a wild journey this has been. These past four years have and probably will be some of the best years of my life. I've meet some amazing people that I hope I never lose touch with and that I stay close with forever. Just a quick thanks to my true dudes that I know will always be there for me M.S, D.R ,J.H, J.M, K.P, & S.H I'm really gonna miss some of the times we had. S.B so many good times bro. And Megan I love you so much this has been one awesome year baby! And some quick love to family Mimi, all my family down in Georgia, Ann & Kc you guys are the best! But most importantly my parents. Dad its hard to say how i feel in a yearbook. I'm sorry things turned out this way. I love you though, and I appreciate everything you've done for me over the years. Mom you are the best. I'd be lost without you. Since I was a kid you were my best friend and a loving mother. No matter what I was going through, I'm pretty sure I can say we've been through it all. You always could bring a smile to face cause you gotta be the funniest person on earth. I love you so much Mom; you're the greatest mom ever no matter how many people may think otherwise! I can't believe our year has come. I'm going to miss everyone when we part for our goals, our dreams, and our futures. I want to thank the people that I cherish and love the most. Mom and both of my Dads, I'll never forget what you did to help me become what I am today, and I can't thank you enough for all that you've done for me; all of the sacrifices and the encouragement you gave me. My siblings Neil, Caitlin, Roly, Tiffany and Ramy: I love you guys with all of my heart. Thanks for all of your support and love. Nana, you've been my idol, my coach, and more importantly, someone I can talk to about football. I love you with all of my heart and I'll always cherish the times we spent together. Papa, I miss you so much. I know you're proud of what I've accomplished. Thank you for all that you've done for me. I hope you're happy wherever you are. Rest in peace, my good friend. My friends Ambold, Holty, Larson, Kris, and others, love you like brothers. We'll be best buds forevermore. For everyone else I forgot, love you too.

It's been an amazing experience for me and I have accomplished so much. I want to thank these people for always being here and believing in me when no one else would. Mom, dad, and Sam I love you and couldn't live without you guys. You've done everything to make me happy and you have always been there for me. Thank you so much love you guys forever. My best friend Stef Wronski, I know we have our ups and downs but your my bestie for life and I couldn't imagine a life without you! We have way too much fun and have amazing memories. I'll always be here for you, love ya forever girly. One other person that has changed my life is Mauro Hill. He's changed me completely and has always been there through everything. Mauro your a great guy, friend, and an amazing boyfriend. No matter what happens I will always have love for you. You've made me a better person, thanx babe. Live life with no regrets. I love you always and forever. 6/9/09 <3 [Inside Jokes: Stef....25 CATS! Whats that smell....lol....nicole + fishing + water + slippery rocks= well enough said! =D lol]

"I've missed more than 9000 shots in my career. I've lost almost 300 games. 26 times, I've been trusted to take the game winning shot and missed. I've failed over and over and over again in my life. And that is why I succeed."
-Michael Jordan

First, I would like to thank my family, friends and teachers for getting me through my High School career. I wouldn't have been able to get through these final four years with out the motivation and confidence to get me through High School. I know everybody says they wish they took High School a little bit more seriously but I truly wish I did take it a lot more seriously then I did. To actually think about getting a free pass all the way through college is something I wish I took advantage of by doing better in high school. This is all in the past now so I look towards the future of a clean slate after high school and being able to ride down what ever road I choose. I hope for the best for all my fellow graduates and I hope for them all to succeed in their career opportunity and I plan on staying in touch with most of my friends after high school no matter how far they plan on going. I would like to thank Derek Ramstrom for being that friend for pretty much my whole life and the times I've had with that crazy 35 race car driver I will never forget.

We are graduating! We waited so long for this moment, and now I just want time to slow down. High school has flown by, but it was full of unforgettable moments that I will cherish forever. To all my friends: Je vous aime beaucoup! [I love you lots!!!] Thank you for making high school so funny, fabulous, fantastic, and every other good word I didn't get a chance to list. I could not have asked for a better group of people to spend the last four years with. I know I owe the biggest "Thank you" of all to my family. I could not have accomplished anything without your love and support. Ty and Joe: Even it didn't always seem like it, I love you guys. You are the best little brothers. Mom and Dad: You are the most incredible people I know. Thank you for everything - I owe it all to you! Finally, congratulations to the Class of 2010! We made it! Best of luck in everything you do!

I recently read a quote at the beginning of a book, saying that "Everything in this world Exists to wear you down." Never has something like a quote had so much meaning to me. In a way, school and all the stress from it can wear you down until nothing's left. But in a way, the quote is wrong. As low as you can feel, there's always something good to look forward to. Where there's a down, there's an up, so we should always choose up, because that's where the light is. This final year is our light, because something good opens up when we leave, and our new lives soon begin.

Senior year is finally here and I don't think anyone would have believed it would come. By no stretch though was this a nice walk in the park. A lot of people came along the way that helped me get to this point. A common thing that everyone shares is family. If it was not for my family I would not be in this position today and would not be the man I am either. Thanks to Aunt Rose for the talks, my teachers who though I hated doing the work, got me to this point with the education to get me that diploma. My friends who made school a lot easier to bear. Some notable people out of these groups are Mr. Gibbs and T Aves who I managed to always have a laugh with. One of my good friends, Allie who I also always had a laugh with, along with that wheel chair incident. Thank you to Sgt Poor and the rest of the recruiters who helped me out with the army and gave me some good memories thank you all. Thank you especially to my grandmother who showed me the way in life

"If you want to keep your memories, you first have to live them."

Congratulations. I'd like to thank my mother for always making me laugh and being genuine. I would not be the person I am today without her. Also, my friends have been pretty amazing throughout the years. My best friend Dawn is probablyy the greatest person to be friends with ever. Thank you so much for everything Singingstaa. High school wouldn't have been the same without little Jason and big Dan. And then there's my girls, Becca, Britt, and Courtney, beach trips, too much walmart ;]. I could never forget the boy on the bike who happened to become one of my closest and best friends. Love you all forever! I wish everyone luck and hope you all enjoy yourselves!

2010... we did it! I've been waiting for senior year for 12 years. Now that it's here, I don't believe it! We all came in as little freshmen having no idea what was ahead - we're walking out almost the same way. What we do have is our memories and friendships, and I know these have changed my life. First thank you to my family for putting up with me, and my sisters, Kim [the pretty one] Court [prty. Er!] and Britt[the athletic one - Love you forever! - from the baby]. To my girls - Ill never forget our laughs in preeal and ehem., drive threws and getting lost everywhere. SK - you've been there since the beginning. Move to the Bahamas next time-2am ice cream? KP - the cat came back theverynext day - PRINCESS ,senior mobile.... felix. AP[4th grade!]/LL/CA spring show. Illegal love. Cowboys. Nough said. CL - band closets and ringing phones, so many laughs. DK - fun-kin donuts, is there a hospital there?- sweet baby jesus. KA... thanks for being my therapist.. now go to sleep. So, Seniors... its finally our time, let's live it up! I'm so happy I got to grow up with you all -see you around!

These past four years have gone by so fast, it feels just like yesterday that we were all going into high school. The people that I would like to thank the most are my parents, family and friends. Mom, you've been there for me throughout everything. I would like to thank you for all that you've done for me. My two brothers, Paul and Mike. Especially Mike, we've gotten to be so close the last couple years, you've always there for me when I need you, and vise versa. Even though you're my brother, you've become one of my best friends. I don't know what I would do without you. Jess and Liz, my two best friends, or more like sisters. You guys have been there for me ever since and I know you always will. We've had so many great times together and I know we have a lot more to come. Thanks for always being there the last couple years. I would also like to thank the rest of my family and friends. For the rest of the class of 2010, good luck.

Even though I went to Mass Academy for the past two years, I still have fond memories of West Boylston. I will never forget my friends who have always supported me and made my high school experience memorable. To Fletcher and Sonja, we had a lot of great memories in Australia [marshmallow fights, heaters, and quicksand]. To Maggie, Kim, and Emily, I will never forget all the movie nights and the laughs we shared. To Kevin, thank you for being there for me. We've had a lot of good times together. To my family: Mom and Dad - Thank you for all of your love and support. I wouldn't be the same without you. To Emily- My "fabulous" little sister, thanks for all the great times and memories. I love you all! High school might have been full of challenges and new experiences, but it flew by. I will never forget it! Good luck Class of 2010! I know you will be successful in everything you do! I'm going to miss you.

Well, this is it, the end of high school. It's been a great time while it lasted. School was great but my friends and family really made it what it was. Mom, Dad, Ben, Sam, Elizabeth, you guys are the best. I have the best family on Earth; I'd be nothing without you guys! Thanks to my teachers who put up with me all four years! My friends are the best too haha. From the good old days of playing stickball at the courts every day and every night to fishing at Chapman's, it's been a blast! Skating the flood and going to the rope-swing everyday in the summer is what memories are made of. Soccer was awesome and I'll never forget any of the team! WB Tennis!! Every winter, snowboarding at Wachusett [WB Ski Club!] and the Sunday River trips made my life complete hahaha. "The girls" and "the guys" I love you all hahaha. And the rest of the class of 2010, have a great time in whatever you do next! Thanks for everything WB, see you around.

Wow guys, we made it! so here it goes... I never thought these years would go by so fast. Its been like an up and down roller coaster at times but we made it through the ride. We met new friends and learned a lot more about ourselves. First, Mom, Dad, and Michelle, thanks for putting up with me and pushing me through school, I know I am a pain at times but I love you very much. Nicole, you are my best friend and you know I am always here for you. We have had the best times together. CATS!haha, driving around for hours, I wouldn't want things any other way[the time we went fishing and you fell in the water haha!]. Liz, I am so glad we became so close, and we have also had our share of crazy times and talks that I will never forget :]. Mike and Taylor thanks for being there, you guys are great! For the rest you know who you are :] We have all made memories here together and I hope they will be remembered for a long time. Hope to see you around, Congratulations and Good Luck Class of 2010!

I have so many words to write, yet such a small space to fit them in. It's unbelievable how fast these years have gone by; now I understand why people were always saying that time flies by. These years in high school have probably been the best time of my life, and I owe that to my friends. Obviously without them, high school would have been unbearable. Random road trips, town soccer losing streaks, and sledding into trees were some of my favorite times. Cayla, I'm forever in debt to your family for letting me eat there all the time, and for letting me watch the Game Show Network nonstop. High school has also taught me a lot of things, the most important of which is to always count on your family. Most people take their family for granted, but I've learned that they're the people you need to love the most, because, no matter what, they'll always be there for you. Jeremy, have fun in high school, because it's over before you know it. As for everyone else, good luck in whatever you decide to do after we leave here. Congratulations class of 2010!

Joseph Moriarty leaves his amazing intelligence and harrassment in the hallways to Alanna Roberts, his stunning good looks to Luke Fancy and the trip to Disney World to Alexis Condon.

Shannen Mulryan leaves Lexi Bourn her #21 for basketball & soccer, Kendra Sloan her points for basketball and her superstitions, Amanda McKernan her swagger and socks and Andrea Morrow her beast kick and defense.

Rachel Murphy leaves Roxy to Ally Murphy, Ronny her sweet dance moves and MG lots of snacks on those lonely nights.

Derek Nolan leaves the math class restraining order to Cole Jaskoviak.

Jeremiah O'Toole leaves Mike O'Neil the gingerbread cookies and no "running" partner in baseball, Mike Pace the Shamrock Thunder, Christine Galante his musical talent and Sam Colangelo the Griffin Watch.

Senior Will

Corey Page leaves all his senior year work to Kayla and Kaylee and the Dream Team to Matt Gray.

Jared Peterson leaves his parking pass to Alex and his gym clothes to T. Smith.

Kristen Peterson leaves Amy, Stephanie, and Diane fun times in the hay field, country fest tickets to Jill and Josh my car keys.

Gregory Phelps leaves L.J. and Joey Fitton his belly shirts and the DECA Presidency for Julianne and Josh to fight over.

Ariana Philbin leaves Emily Walker a hug and good times in band with all it's naughty jokes.

Olivia Prato leaves her writing inspirations to Ms. Tina Avery.

Kaitlyn Prendiville leaves A.J. Rymer her heart, Justin Beshai the top of her locker, and all the new seniors her power of will and the school her long lasting impression.

Leah Pusateri leaves her friendly hellos in the hallway to Bri Nilsson, and the legend of the long jump to Jill Pelto.

Jessica Riopel leaves her field hockey sticks to any West Boylston player who wants to play for the TWB Lady Stags. Keep the program going!

Lily Urquhart leaves behind her memories (good and bad) and the wonderful friends she's made over the last four years and that drama class will never lose its luster and joy.

Anthony Valera leaves militantplatypus.com.

Fletcher Viders leaves Lexi B. 3 hour car trips to Six Flags and her excellent driving skills.

John Welch leaves everything to Ross Lavelle and Ryan Graham.

Stephanie Wronski leaves Michelle the hallways of the high school, all the drama and her laugh.

Brittany Zendzian leaves the coveted Mt. Sugarloaf sweatshirt to Jeremy Zendzian. Take care of it.

GONE WITH THE WIND

Take it as it comes, go where the wind blows

Wind by Amy Lowell

He shouts in the sails of
The ships at sea,
He steals the down
From the honeybee,
He makes the forest trees
Rustle and sing,
He twirls my kite till
It breaks its string.
Laughing, dancing, sunny wind,
Whistling, howling, rainy wind,
North, South, East and West,
Each is the wind I like the best.

Wind whispers
Dandelions s*catter*
rumors all around

-Richard Terrify

The wind carried it far from their subdued sight.
The wind was whispering
sweet nothings to the rays of light.
Butterflies, birds and bumblebees rode the balmy breeze.
Quiet children sprinkled sand
on their outstretched hands.
Seventeen of those tots sprawled across Spring's sweet lands.

--S.C. Kleinhans

Just DREAM

Arthur Waley

Autumn wind rises;
White clouds fly.
Grass and trees wither;
Here comes the wind

Play in leaves
Skip down the street
Run against the wind

Ben Coviello

Ben, we can hardly believe this day has come. Wasn't it just yesterday you were my liddaman outside playing for hours with your construction trucks? You are a special person Ben, always remember that. You have always been kind, giving, and strong. You have a heart of gold and wonderful sense of humor! We wish you all the luck in the world. Go out there and show everyone just how good you can be. Anyone who can call you their friend is one lucky person! Never change the person you are Ben. And remember...if it is to be, then it is up to me! We love you!

Nathan Bricault

There are few memories more precious to us than those of our conversations in the relaxed glow of a late night fire, debating everything from the mundane to the imaginary. You always got in the last, if not the penultimate, remark! Your curiousity has led to dripping plastic, twisted metal rods and mysterious vials in the freezer,,, we can't wait to see what's next! We love you so very much, Mom and Dad

Nathan, the Spark Notes:

"Not necessarily...." duct tape & daggers, Lincoln Logs, Legos, lasers & LaunchQuest, Mass Academy, Got Books?, microgravity and microscopes, Cheese Dreams, beef teriyaki & jelly beans, "Blame Tom!" arguing for entertainment, glue gun guru, trench coat & shorts... in the winter, DI and Globals and Globals again! Sun Tzu, skip a year or two, loather of lettuce, gweeps, purrs & hisses, catapults & solar furnaces, mock trial= no shorts for you! "That's annoying!" "Can I melt that?" flintlocks and fencing, lover of pi and pie, "Not the One!"

My brother... is like a roll of duct tape. It's really stubborn, wonderfully geeky, and endlessly useful. All in all... it just might be the greatest treasure you an have (if at times the most annoying). Nate, you have always understood that life is not merely an instant challenge..., it is Challenge B! Now it's time to write a skit all on your own. Know that I'll always be here to help... and laugh at you! Hehe!

We extend congratulations and best wishes to the Class of 2009 on your approaching High School Graduation.

Teens are setting an example for their parents, with 56 percent of teens volunteering to support a charitable cause.

TOP WAYS TO SAVE ENERGY

1. Turn off the lights when no one's in the room.
2. Carry a reusable tote bag when you go shopping.
3. Bike or walk instead of driving.
4. Get a reusable metal water bottle.
5. Unplug and shut down electronic devices when not in use.
6. Buy music online instead of purchasing CDs.
7. Use rechargeable batteries instead of disposables.
8. Replace standard light bulbs with compact fluorescent bulbs.
9. In winter, turn down the heat and wear more layers.
10. In summer, set your air conditioner thermostat to 72° or higher.
